

ROSSA SHOT.

An English Woman Wounds the Irish Dynamiter.

THE WOMAN ARRESTED AND HELD.

While Rossa is Taken to the Hospital for Treatment.

TRACING THE ASSASSIN'S MOVEMENTS.

How the News Was Received in England.

New York, February 2.—The assassination of O'Donovan Rossa, the great dynamiter, by a pretty English girl, has thrown the city into such a whirl of excitement as was only equalled by the reverberation of the pistol shot with which the life of Garfield went out. The sensation created by the bloody assassination of Captain Thomas Phelan, and the pistol duel which took place between him and his assailant on the street, gave the first evidence that the Irish conspirators on this side meant that life should be the forfeit of disloyalty to their cause. The well-planned explosion of the parliament buildings and the tower of London was the signal that the Irish meant to carry the dynamite war into the heart of the enemy's country. The excitement which first alarmed England, then the United States, and finally shook the civilized world, is now capped by a tragedy in which a young English woman—whether a fanatic or the avenger of a private grievance yet remains to be established—stands over the prostrate body of O'Donovan Rossa with a smoking revolver in her hand.

The Story of the Crime.

The great dynamiter was standing in front of the Stewart building on Chambers street at twelve minutes past five this afternoon, when he was approached by a handsome young lady, dressed in plain clothes. She wore spectacles, and had the appearance of an intellectual looking school-teacher. She drew a five-barrelled revolver from her dress pocket, and leveling it at him, fired one shot. Rossa threw his hands above his head and cried: "He's shot!"

HE WAS SHOT.

"He shot!" he said, and then he fell heavily to the sidewalk. The woman fired the remaining bullets in her pistol at the prostrate man, and calmly and unconcernedly walked off with the empty revolver in her hand.

FOLLOWED AND ARRESTED.

She was followed by a large crowd, while a still larger mob surrounded the wounded dynamiter. City Marshal James McCaulley, in the absence of a policeman, saw the woman in the woman's hands, and arrested her. She was conducted to the Twenty-sixth precinct stationhouse in the city hall. Her improvised gravity and coolness of demeanor were remarkable. When arraigned at the sergeant's desk, McCaulley handed the revolver, a small calibre five-shooter, to the sergeant, and said he found the woman brandishing the weapon in the street. A citizen who entered the police station with the prisoner, said she had just shot a man on Chambers street.

"DO YOU KNOW THE MAN?"

"Do you know the man?" asked Sergeant Cass, turning to the woman. "Yes, I shot O'Donovan Rossa," said the prisoner, with a slight English accent. She looked very pretty, as she stood at the bar, and betrayed no excitement whatever. She gave her name as Yvelud Dudley.

FURTHER QUESTIONING BY THE SERGEANT.

Further questioning by the sergeant at the police station elicited the statement that the woman's name was Yvelud Dudley, aged 25 years; that she was a nurse and married, and that she lived at No. 66 City Hall place. She was asked why she shot O'Donovan, how long she had been in America, and other questions to which she made no answer. After her "pedigree" had been taken, she was escorted to the rear room, and the crowd slowly dispersed. As there were no accommodations for the prisoners in the city hall station, Mrs. Dudley was removed to Oak street station, at 7:15 p.m., and there placed in a cell. Her entire demeanor was that of a rational person, and a cool headed one at that.

ROSSA TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL.

Rossa, after being shot, was able to rise to his feet, and with the assistance of a man on each side, he walked to the Chambers street hospital, about a quarter of a mile. There it was found that only one shot had struck him. That was in the back, and the bullet is lodged in the muscles about half an inch above the left shoulder blade. The wound will not cause him much inconvenience. Rossa was placed in a cot in the same ward in which Captain Phelan lies, and within twenty-five feet of Phelan, who was nearly cut to pieces in Rossa's office by Short.

SHORTLY AFTER THE SURGICAL EXAMINATION.

Shortly after the surgical examination the doctor was sent for and Rossa made his anti-morsem statement, which is as follows:

ing, corner Broadway and Chambers street. I followed him, and I met her. I told her it would be well to go to some hotel, as the telephone office has no place to talk in. We came out and went to Sweeney's hotel. We went into the ladies' parlor, and she said she would be able to give considerable money for anything good was done. She then said she would call Monday, February 3, at 4 o'clock. To-day she sent another message to my office, and I went to the same telephone office, and there I met the lady. She showed me a paper which I was to sign. She then suggested that we go to some place. We walked down Chambers street toward Broadway, and we got a short distance toward Broadway, when the woman stepped back and fired two or three shots at me. One of the balls entered my back.

CAPTAIN PHELAN'S GRIEF SMILE.

He was then moved to another ward. Captain Phelan, who is still guarded by a policeman, when informed of the particulars of the shooting, smiled grimly, but refused to say anything on the subject. The office of the hospital was visited by a large number of Rossa's friends to-night. All of them were deliberate looking men, and their talk boded no good to Rossa's enemies.

MRS. DUDLEY A BRITISH SPY.

To a reporter who interviewed him to-night Rossa expressed the opinion that he was the victim of a conspiracy by the British government; that the woman was only a paid assassin.

Patrick Joyce, Rossa's right-hand man, expressed a similar opinion, accompanied with many threats.

Mrs. Dudley discarded her glasses to-night, and some of Rossa's friends assert that she was merely worn as a disguise. She refuses to talk to any person.

THE BULLET STRUCK ROSSA BELOW THE SHOULDER.

The bullet struck Rossa below the shoulder-blade and ranged upward, and is lodged in the muscles behind and above the shoulder-blade. Rossa is a large, muscular and fleshy man. The doctors say no danger is to be apprehended from the wound. Rossa is comfortable to-night, and expresses confidence that he will recover. His wife was sent to the hospital, where she remains.

MRS. DUDLEY'S ACCENT.

On January 22, at Mrs. Leggett's house for unemployed women, in Clinton place. The matron admitted her, when she gave as reference a physician whom she said everybody knew, and then she added: "I am a professional nurse, and a widow, and desire to stay here until I can secure employment."

IN TELLING THE STORY OF HER ACQUAINTANCE WITH MRS. DUDLEY, MATRON BROWN SAID:

She impressed me very favorably that I told her to remain in the house if she would room with two other young ladies. This she consented to do. She only looked a value, which she was not, because, as she one day remarked, she might be called suddenly to attend some patient. She told me that she had married and had two children, but that her husband and children died abroad. She was an English girl, and had been engaged in the British cavalry service. She had acted as a trained nurse in London and Paris, and had diplomas from institutions of that kind, but I never examined them, though she showed them to me. She was a tall, slender woman, and her manners and speech betokened a thoroughbred English woman of keen mind and bright perceptions, an intensely patriotic little lady, and sarcastic and cutting when speaking of those who seem to be at war on her people. She was extremely well-sighted. In telling me of her work abroad, she one day said that she much more enjoyed hospital work abroad than nursing she has been doing here.

"WHAT WAS THE HISTORY OF HER MOVEMENTS WHILE WITH YOU?"

"What was the history of her movements while with you?" was asked of the matron. "She came here one week ago Thursday last. Tuesday is our weekly pay day, and she paid her board up to last Tuesday. On Tuesday she came to me hurriedly, said she had a case and was going. She would take the hatch-key, for she might desire to return. She went, taking a valise, and by the way, I never knew of her having a pistol. Last Thursday she returned, coming in the pleasantest mood possible, and said her patient died. Then she paid her board up to Tuesday, to-morrow. But about three o'clock this afternoon, she came to me and said she was going away again, might not return, and if she did not she would send for the valise. I returned to her the money for one day's board, and she went away between three and four o'clock this afternoon, and seemed not unduly excited. Then this evening I was shocked to hear that she had shot at Rossa."

THE YOUNG LADIES TALK.

In the parlor of Mrs. Leggett's home, a bevy of young ladies talked of Mrs. Dudley's deed. "She was almost crazy with excitement one week ago Sunday, when she read of the explosion in London," said one lady. "She said America should give up Rossa to the English, and then, on Sunday last, when she heard of the explosion in Grand street, she was again very much excited. She had a number of copies of Rossa's paper, and Sunday, said she had an interview with Rossa the day before, and said she had Rossa's word for it that he could get a ten of dynamite in New York, that she heard him say he knew and was in league with those who made it, and he didn't care if they stopped its exportation or its importation." Then she added, that "somebody would get even with O'Donovan Rossa yet. I never knew she had a pistol, but offered to lead her mine." The young woman concluded by saying she believed Mrs. Dudley temporarily insane on the subject of dynamite as used against her country.

STILL FURTHER BEHIND THE RECORD.

The matron did not know who or where Dr. Thomas or Thompson was, whom Mrs. Dudley had referred to. Dr. Thomas at 294 Fifth avenue. At his office it was learned that about four months ago Mrs. Dudley had come from England in company with a lady of Newark, N. J. They brought diplomas from foreign hospitals, and Dr. Thomas had sent them both to Dr. Chambers, at Dr. Thomas's private sanitarium, 598 Lexington avenue. Dr. Chambers was found at this address, and in the absence of Dr. Du Bois, who has charge of the institution for Dr. Thomas, stated that Mrs. Dudley and Miss Chambers came to him, not from Dr. Thomas direct, but from the Roosevelt hospital, where they had been employed. They were employed on trial November 21 and showed diplomas from the London hospitals. Dr. Chambers was very favorably impressed with Mrs. Dudley, but she did not work harmoniously with those in the sanitarium. At the end of one month, without being discharged, Mrs. Dudley left. A young nurse at the sanitarium talked reluctantly. She had seen Mrs. Dudley's certificate from the Charing Cross hospital in London. She did not regard Mrs. Dudley as light in her head. She boasted almost constantly of her ability as a nurse. She once said her young child had been dead two years, never referred to her father or mother.

THE SUPERINTENDENT J. R. LATHROP WAS SEEN AT 7 P. M.

Mrs. Dudley came there October 7th and left November 10th. Lathrop was not favorably impressed with Mrs. Dudley. Her service was not satisfactory. She had some ability as a nurse, but was deficient in order. She left voluntarily, and from Roosevelt hospital had gone over to Dr. Thomas's sanitarium.

WHAT THE ENGLISH CONSUL THINKS.

James Pierpont Edwards, British consul, was found in his library at 44 East Third street. He had heard of the shooting of Rossa by Mrs. Dudley, but had no details. These being furnished, he asked "the condition of this wretched man," referring to Rossa. Being told that he would probably recover, Edwards ejaculated: "Then he will become a greater hero than ever."

ously with those in the sanitarium. At the end of one month, without being discharged, Mrs. Dudley left. A young nurse at the sanitarium talked reluctantly. She had seen Mrs. Dudley's certificate from the Charing Cross hospital in London. She did not regard Mrs. Dudley as light in her head. She boasted almost constantly of her ability as a nurse. She once said her young child had been dead two years, never referred to her father or mother.

THE SUPERINTENDENT J. R. LATHROP WAS SEEN AT 7 P. M.

Mrs. Dudley came there October 7th and left November 10th. Lathrop was not favorably impressed with Mrs. Dudley. Her service was not satisfactory. She had some ability as a nurse, but was deficient in order. She left voluntarily, and from Roosevelt hospital had gone over to Dr. Thomas's sanitarium.

WHAT THE ENGLISH CONSUL THINKS.

James Pierpont Edwards, British consul, was found in his library at 44 East Third street. He had heard of the shooting of Rossa by Mrs. Dudley, but had no details. These being furnished, he asked "the condition of this wretched man," referring to Rossa. Being told that he would probably recover, Edwards ejaculated: "Then he will become a greater hero than ever."

THEN HE WILL BECOME A GREATER HERO THAN EVER.

It should be added: "It is unfortunate that he should have been shot by an Englishwoman, but I think the poor lady must be denoted on the subject. She surely must be denoted. I never have seen her, that I can recall, and know nothing of her."

ROSSA'S LIFE IN NEW YORK.

Jeremiah O'Donovan Rossa has been a conspicuous figure in Irish national affairs for years. He added the word "Rossa," which in the Celtic tongue means "Red," to his name after reaching this country, and it is presumed he did this to strike terror to perfidious Albion. After being discharged from an English prison he came to this country with Thomas Francis Bourke, Dr. Denis Dowling Mulcahy and John Devoy, about 1869. He was engaged in a number of enterprises in New York, having been ticket agent for the trans-Atlantic line of steamers, and a hotel keeper. He ran for state senator in the fourth senatorial district against Wm. M. Tweed, and was easily defeated. He opened a hotel on the corner of Chatham Square and Mott street, which, for a while, did a good business, but a great resort for Irish nationalists. Custom fell off after a time, and Rossa was compelled to shut up the place. He subsequently founded the United Irishmen, a radical dynamite organ, and of which he was the reputed editor at the time he was shot. He is 53 years old, but remarkably well preserved. He has a wife and five children, and lives with his family in his own house at 28 Dary street, Brooklyn.

ROSSA SLEEPING QUIETLY.

The physicians' bulletin, issued at 1 o'clock a. m., stated that O'Donovan Rossa was sleeping quietly, and suffering no pain. His condition was generally favorable. Mrs. Rossa left the hospital for her home at 11:30 p. m.

A QUEER WOMAN.

NEWARK, N. J., February 2.—Mrs. Dudley, who shot Rossa, spent a week in a boarding house here, and during that time acted so strangely and talked so violently that the proprietress determined to get rid of her, and told her she had no room for her, and she must seek other quarters. She left on Monday following the dynamite explosion in London. The proprietress said she talked almost incessantly on all sorts of subjects, and he made up his mind to get rid of her.

ROSSA'S RAGE.

The story of O'Donovan Rossa's hatred to Great England is one of great interest, and in it must be sought the sting which has goaded him on to such deeds of revenge against the British government. He is the son of a protestant minister, and is himself a protestant. During the Fenian excitement of 1867-78 he was the publisher of a paper in Dublin called "The Irish People." He naturally sympathized with his own people, and urged political organization to wrest Irish rights from British power. For this act he was convicted of treason and sentenced to silent servitude in Portland prison for a term of years, and was confined in a cell. The cruelties to which he was submitted were of such a nature as to make a madman. When his time had expired the Irish of British cruelty had sunk deep into his heart, and he went forth with a vow registered in his mind to get rid of a gang of his dynasties to break up the meeting.

THE FIRE RECORD.

A Michigan Town Completely Wiped Out. The damage estimated at $200,000. Manchester, Mich., February 2.—The first National bank building, the finest structure in the city, is on fire. The entire building is enveloped in flames, and will be totally destroyed. The loss will be over $100,000. A 1:45 a. m. the bank building was totally destroyed with all its contents. The greatest excitement prevails. Efforts are concentrated on saving the adjoining buildings.

THE LOSSES WILL BE ABOUT AS FOLLOWS:

Building $100,000; Newberger $40,000; S. Kaufman & Son $30,000; Rothschild & Bending $29,000; First National bank $25,000; Merchants' National bank $20,000; Citizens' National bank $15,000; Commercial National bank $10,000; Farmers' National bank $5,000; Total $250,000.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

WASHINGTON, February 2.—The debt statement issued to-day shows the decrease of the public debt during the month of January to be $2,420,000. Decrease of the debt since January 30, 1884: U. S. bonds outstanding $40,300,594; Gold certificates outstanding $24,730,530; Silver certificates outstanding $14,129,701; Certificates of deposit outstanding $23,000; Legal tenders outstanding $36,851,616; Fractional currency outstanding (not including amount estimated as lost or destroyed) 6,502,000.

A MOVE AGAINST JAY GOULD.

St. Louis, February 2.—A bill in inquiry was filed in the United States district court by the Iron Mountain railway company against the receivers of the Wabash road, to nullify the indenture of the company on all the Wabash bonds and notes, and to remove Jay Gould, Solon Humphreys, Russell Sage and F. M. Ames from the directory of the Iron Mountain railway, as they are also directors of the Missouri Pacific road, a competing line.

THE STATE LEGISLATURES.

The Illinois Assemblyman Not Sick—The Echoes From the States. Chicago, February 2.—It is stated to-day that notwithstanding the report to the contrary Saturday night, Assemblyman Brackenhouse is not seriously ill. He is quoted as saying that he expects to be on hand at Springfield whenever the senatorial election takes place.

of the money market have awakened to the fact that our hands are not as strong as they are against the aristocrats of the Old World. Edmunds' title as in other shady transactions, their attorney."

THE NEWS IN ENGLAND.

London, February 2.—The first intelligence of the shooting of Rossa was posted on the newspaper bulletins and sent on the tickers to the clubs at midnight, which shows quick work, considering the five hours difference in time between New York and London. The news spread with wonderful rapidity throughout the city, and caused the wildest excitement. Crowds of people surrounded the bulletin-boards, and at almost every corner there was a group of men jubilantly discussing the event. Passing pedestrians who stopped to hear what the excitement was about were told, "O'Donovan has been shot." The response was invariably a cheer or some other expression of delight. Many men became almost frantic in the exuberance of their feelings. Strangers embraced each other effusively and shook hands with the fervor of lifelong friends. Then they would link arms and rush in squads to the bars of the nearest hotels, shouting as they went, "Rossa is shot!" Many thousands toasts were drunk to the health and happiness of Mrs. Dudley, who is lauded as a heroine.

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH, COMMENTING ON THE SHOOTING OF ROSSA, SAYS:

"It would be idle to pretend that there is the smallest sympathy for Rossa in England. He is not a bold patriot, willing to die in behalf of his country, but he has been ready to cheer others in the danger which he himself avoids. From the beginning of his career there has never been a speck of nobility, courage or patriotism in his conduct."

THE TELEGRAPH CONGRATULATES IRELAND ON THE FACT THAT SOME OF HER SONS HAVE DENOUNCED THE DYNAMITE OUTRAGES, AND CALLS UP FARNELL ALSO TO SPEAK.

The New York Times says: "Though there is little sympathy with Rossa, reasonable men will deplore the course of shooting him as the possible beginning of a series of personal reprisals, which will not be easily ended. It is almost inevitable that Madame Hughes will have her revenge."

THE SOCIALISTS RISE.

And Have a Lively Time With the Police—Schwab Arrested. New York, February 2.—Two thousand persons gathered at the socialist meeting to-night in Concordia hall, on avenue A, in the German quarter. It was rumored previous to the meeting that trouble would be caused by the socialists, and indeed, it was. A number of their adherents, who intended to capture and control the proceedings, this less radical element of the party, headed by Editor Schuchbach, called the Volksverein, were determined to hold the extremists in check. The Volksverein circular, printed in English and German, denouncing the dynamite outrages, had been widely circulated by the Schuchbach faction, but it excited the derision of the Schwab-Most crowd, who, in return, issued a flaming incendiary appeal, appealing the dynamiters and threatening violence to the police. Police Captain McCullough, of the Irish precinct, attended the meeting with a large force of police.

The assembly to order, and his radical opponents objected in such a way that a tumult ensued, in which chairs, clubs, and revolvers figured. McCullough commanded silence, and forced his way to the platform, followed by his men. Schwab saw him, and shouted: "It is the police, kill him!" The infuriated crowd rushed upon the officers, and Captain McCullough was struck on the head with a chair, and knocked down. He regained his feet, and at the points of their revolvers the police kept the mob at bay. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station. Captain McCullough found him in his saloon on First street. He submitted quietly to arrest. Bell was refused and he was locked up. The rioters wanted to resume deliberations, and supplemented their demands by drawing clubs, knives and pistols. Captain McCullough was reinforced in a little while by thirty policemen. This enraged the crowd still further, and they again attacked the police, who responded with clubs, and the rioters were badly punished, and many heads were cracked. With the exception of Officer Bell, who was slightly cut in the face, and a few bruises sustained by McCullough, none of the rioters were injured. Peter Brown, one of the rioters, had his leg broken and had to be sent to the hospital. Justice Schwab was the only man arrested, and he was taken to the police station

BALLOT-BOX STOLEN.

A STRANGE INCIDENT OF THE DECATUR COUNTY ELECTION.

Burglary in Baxley.—A fire in Lawrenceville—Fallure at Jug Tavern.—A fire in Lawrenceville—Fallure at Jug Tavern.—A fire in Lawrenceville—Fallure at Jug Tavern.

RAINFALL, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—In the contest for the ordinary of Decatur county, between Colonel C. J. Munnerly and G. F. Westmoreland, when the boxes supposed to contain the records of the election were opened they were empty. The seals were unbroken. It is a very mysterious affair. There is no clue.

Vandalism in Stone Mountain.—STONE MOUNTAIN, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—Some persons entered the Stone Mountain granite works and defaced $1,000 worth of work.

Is It Small Pox?—THOMSON, February 2.—[Special].—Most of the physicians here say that the prevalent disease is small pox in a mild form, though some of them call it hom pox. Every effort has been made to isolate it.

Failure at Jug Tavern.—MORRIS, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—Sanders, Cooper & Co., of Decatur, Ga., who were to have a party at the Jug Tavern, have failed. The party was to have been given on Saturday night. The party was to have been given on Saturday night.

A Reading Club in Sparta.—SPARTA, February 2.—[Special].—A reading club was organized at Mr. George White's in Sparta, composed of the young people of the town. Mr. Roster was elected president, and Mr. George P. Middlebrooks secretary.

To Be Married to-Morrow.—DANVILLE, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—The invitations are out announcing the contemplated nuptials of Mr. Albert Henderson, a young lawyer of this city and Miss Anna Mayo, of Albany, Ga., on Wednesday the 4th of February.

Teaching in Buford.—BUFORD, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—Miss Laura Robinson, a resident graduate of the Atlanta girls' high school, has been appointed first assistant in our institute.

The Whiteside Academy.—LAGRANGE, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—Miss Gertrude Toole, daughter of ex-Mayor John Toole, has been elected music teacher in the Whiteside academy, and left last week for the position, which she will fill with much credit to herself and to the entire satisfaction of her pupils.

The Result of a Six-Horse Farm.—SANDERSVILLE, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—The six-horse farm of Mr. N. H. Hooks, a substantial planter of this county, netted him over $1,300 last year. He ran one piece on the wagon plan, and with this made eighteen bales of cotton, averaging 40, and 300 bushels of corn.

Coming to Atlanta.—LAGRANGE, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—Mr. Theodore Mayer, a prominent dry goods merchant of LAGRANGE, and one of the most affable and pleasant gentlemen in the city, is coming to Atlanta on the 10th inst., corner Broad and Mitchell streets.

The Barrow County Court.—CARTERSVILLE, February 2.—[Special].—The grand jury of last week in their general presentment, recommended that the representatives of this county introduce a bill at the next session of the legislature, abolishing the present county court, and establishing a circuit court in its stead.

Home Changes in Dawson.—DANVILLE, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—General J. M. Gentry has been removed to his new residence, which is just being completed. Mr. James F. Lark, a most excellent gentleman, has been removed to his new residence, which is just being completed.

A New Church in Sandersville.—SANDERSVILLE, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—The large metallic church, with the tower of the Catholic church, now nearing completion, is to be adorned, has arrived and will be put up to-morrow. Mr. Allen, the skillful director of the work, says that he will turn the church over to the trustees in a few days.

A Hotel on Fire.—SPARTA, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—The Edwards house caught fire, night before last, from the chimney, which burned out. Had it occurred two hours later, when the inmates were asleep, the house would have burned up.

Fire in Lawrenceville.—LAWRENCEVILLE, February 2.—[Special].—Sunday morning about 3 o'clock, Mr. D. R. Elliott's new little cottage burned down. The house was built and owned by Mr. S. C. Poe, who lately sold it to Mr. Elliott. Poe was resting at the time. Johnnie Poe and William Poe, two young men, were the only persons in the house at the time and they knew nothing about it until other parties woke them. No insurance.

A Well Bred Physician.—SANDERSVILLE, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—Bernard Hoffield, a young man of twenty-one years, son of our townsman, Dr. Horatio N. Hoffield, will be the most accomplished physician of his class in Georgia on his return from Europe next year. He took B. A. at London in 1883. M. D. at the university of Maryland in 1884; has been in hospitals in Berlin and Vienna since July, 1882.

Improvements in Athens.—ATHENS, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—A commodious warehouse will soon be built on Broad street at the Georgia road in Athens. Its location to be excavated from the bank on the east side of the track. J. H. Dorsey's wood and coal yard will be established on the embankment just beyond the Georgia depot.

Miss Lulu Hurst.—CEDARTOWN, Ga., February 2.—[Special].—Saturday night an audience of 150 or 200 persons witnessed the appearance of this wonderful young lady. Her hands of strong muscles and iron will subjected her as yet undegenerated power to severe tests, yet were individually and collectively hurled around the stage as if they were toys, provoking applause from the audience as each perspiring victim retired. Judge Cobb being called by the audience for an expression just after his attempt to hold a chair yelled aloud "it's a cyclone." A new and exceedingly satisfactory test made by Miss Lulu by standing on one foot and holding in each hand one or two umbrellas in a horizontal position in front of her body, and allowing two gentlemen to grasp the canes or umbrellas, and attempt to push her off her balance.

Burglary in Baxley.—THE STONE GOODS FOUND IN A NEGRO'S HOME.—BAXLEY, February 2.—[Special].—The town was thrown into a state of excitement this morning in consequence of a burglary which was committed during the night. Five sacks of corn and one sack of beans had been stolen from one of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad cars that had been left upon the side track. A posse was formed and several houses were searched, including the premises of one Samuel Nance, a negro, living about three hundred yards from the depot, at which place the corn and beans were discovered secretly locked up. A warrant was issued and the party arrested and put in jail, where he awaits his trial.

OVER THE STATE.

THE NEWS FROM OUR GEORGIA TOWNS.

An Accident in Fort Valley.—The Tillingham Express of an Engineer.—The Savannah and Oglethorpe Rivers on a Boom.—The Breaking of a Dam, and Other Items.

A horrible case of infanticide, in which James Harrison of Putnam county, and his daughter are concerned, is just now engaging the attention of the authorities.

Charles Yocum, of Columbus, has lost a hand by the accidental discharge of a shotgun.

An accident occurred at the foundry building in Fort Valley, which placed in imminent danger the lives and limbs of a half dozen men.

Mr. Cook, with five colored workmen, Ben Boyles, Joe Fuller, Elijah Nicks, Joiner Fuller and Noah Bryant, were standing on a girder, which was resting on the plates of the building, 15 feet from the ground, making a track to which the girder was to be fastened by iron rods.

One of the supports of the girder gave way, causing it to break, precipitating the men to the ground. Ben Boyles and Elijah Nicks were badly bruised, and it is feared at the action.

The case of the state vs. Joseph Johnson, colored, charged with rape, was tried in the superior court of Stewart county last week. This is the case where a brutish negro is charged with outraging a little negro girl. The evidence was conclusive, and a jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The case of the state vs. Joseph Johnson, colored, charged with rape, was tried in the superior court of Stewart county last week. This is the case where a brutish negro is charged with outraging a little negro girl. The evidence was conclusive, and a jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The Savannah News prints the following story of a narrow escape on the Central:

Engineer Carlton, of the Central, was on duty on the Central railroad, and was driving his train, consisting of a passenger car, a baggage car, and a coal car, and was driving his train, consisting of a passenger car, a baggage car, and a coal car.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

OVER THE STATE.

THE NEWS FROM OUR GEORGIA TOWNS.

An Accident in Fort Valley.—The Tillingham Express of an Engineer.—The Savannah and Oglethorpe Rivers on a Boom.—The Breaking of a Dam, and Other Items.

A horrible case of infanticide, in which James Harrison of Putnam county, and his daughter are concerned, is just now engaging the attention of the authorities.

Charles Yocum, of Columbus, has lost a hand by the accidental discharge of a shotgun.

An accident occurred at the foundry building in Fort Valley, which placed in imminent danger the lives and limbs of a half dozen men.

Mr. Cook, with five colored workmen, Ben Boyles, Joe Fuller, Elijah Nicks, Joiner Fuller and Noah Bryant, were standing on a girder, which was resting on the plates of the building, 15 feet from the ground, making a track to which the girder was to be fastened by iron rods.

One of the supports of the girder gave way, causing it to break, precipitating the men to the ground. Ben Boyles and Elijah Nicks were badly bruised, and it is feared at the action.

The case of the state vs. Joseph Johnson, colored, charged with rape, was tried in the superior court of Stewart county last week. This is the case where a brutish negro is charged with outraging a little negro girl. The evidence was conclusive, and a jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The case of the state vs. Joseph Johnson, colored, charged with rape, was tried in the superior court of Stewart county last week. This is the case where a brutish negro is charged with outraging a little negro girl. The evidence was conclusive, and a jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The Savannah News prints the following story of a narrow escape on the Central:

Engineer Carlton, of the Central, was on duty on the Central railroad, and was driving his train, consisting of a passenger car, a baggage car, and a coal car, and was driving his train, consisting of a passenger car, a baggage car, and a coal car.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

OVER THE STATE.

THE NEWS FROM OUR GEORGIA TOWNS.

An Accident in Fort Valley.—The Tillingham Express of an Engineer.—The Savannah and Oglethorpe Rivers on a Boom.—The Breaking of a Dam, and Other Items.

A horrible case of infanticide, in which James Harrison of Putnam county, and his daughter are concerned, is just now engaging the attention of the authorities.

Charles Yocum, of Columbus, has lost a hand by the accidental discharge of a shotgun.

An accident occurred at the foundry building in Fort Valley, which placed in imminent danger the lives and limbs of a half dozen men.

Mr. Cook, with five colored workmen, Ben Boyles, Joe Fuller, Elijah Nicks, Joiner Fuller and Noah Bryant, were standing on a girder, which was resting on the plates of the building, 15 feet from the ground, making a track to which the girder was to be fastened by iron rods.

One of the supports of the girder gave way, causing it to break, precipitating the men to the ground. Ben Boyles and Elijah Nicks were badly bruised, and it is feared at the action.

The case of the state vs. Joseph Johnson, colored, charged with rape, was tried in the superior court of Stewart county last week. This is the case where a brutish negro is charged with outraging a little negro girl. The evidence was conclusive, and a jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The case of the state vs. Joseph Johnson, colored, charged with rape, was tried in the superior court of Stewart county last week. This is the case where a brutish negro is charged with outraging a little negro girl. The evidence was conclusive, and a jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The Savannah News prints the following story of a narrow escape on the Central:

Engineer Carlton, of the Central, was on duty on the Central railroad, and was driving his train, consisting of a passenger car, a baggage car, and a coal car, and was driving his train, consisting of a passenger car, a baggage car, and a coal car.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

The Fort Valley Mirror has come to the conclusion that there is no period in a woman's life so happy as when she is being courted. The gallantries of courtship, the constant animation, playful words and numberless small compliments of a suitor are delightfully pleasing.

RESEARCH.

EXPERIMENT.

Man and Beast.

Mustang Liniment is older than most men, and used more and more every year.

FOR FIFTY YEARS, by Dr. A. L. Barry, an old practitioner, especially in Female Troubles, was last rewarded in the discovery of that certain and safe specific for woman troubles, LUXOMINI.

LUXOMINI is a preparation that daily grows in popularity. Testimonials from responsible persons all over the country furnish ample evidence of the wonderful power of LUXOMINI as a remedial agent for the relief and permanent cure of all those distressing conditions incident to female troubles.

LUXOMINI is specially adapted to troubles of pregnancy, greatly alleviates the pangs of child birth, shortens labor, prevents after-pains, and facilitates recovery. Owing to the strengthening and toning ingredients LUXOMINI relieves all MENSTRUAL IRREGULARITIES, and is a superior uterine sedative and tonic.

Price $1. If your druggist has not the preparation, address THE BARRY MFG CO., Drawer 28, Atlanta, Ga.

NOTE.—LUXOMINI is no alcoholic mixture, but a combination of herbs and plants in package form from which a simple tea is made.

Write for Interesting Book. Mailed Free.

DR. RICE,

For 50 years Dr. Rice has been a successful practitioner of the art of curing all diseases of the human system.

DR. RICE'S PRIVATE CHRONIC AND SEXUAL DISEASES.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases. Dr. Rice's Private Chronic and Sexual Diseases.

RESEARCH.

EXPERIMENT.

Man and Beast.

Mustang Liniment is older than most men, and used more and more every year.

FOR FIFTY YEARS, by Dr. A. L. Barry, an old practitioner, especially in Female Troubles, was last rewarded in the discovery of that certain and safe specific for woman troubles, LUXOMINI.

LUXOMINI is a preparation that daily grows in popularity. Testimonials from responsible persons all over the country furnish ample evidence of the wonderful power of LUXOMINI as a remedial agent for the relief and permanent cure of all those distressing conditions incident to female troubles.

LUXOMINI is specially adapted to troubles of pregnancy, greatly alleviates the pangs of child birth, shortens labor, prevents after-pains, and facilitates recovery. Owing to the strengthening and toning ingredients LUXOMINI relieves all MENSTRUAL IRREGULARITIES, and is a superior uterine sedative and tonic.

Price $1. If your druggist has not the preparation, address THE BARRY MFG CO., Drawer 28, Atlanta, Ga.

NOTE.—LUXOMINI is no alcoholic mixture, but a combination of herbs and plants in package form from which a simple tea is made.

Write for Interesting Book. Mailed Free.

DR. RICE,

For 50 years Dr. Rice has been a successful practitioner of the

MONT AIR-LINE
and Danville
RAILWAY SYSTEM.

Fast Through Car Route

—WITH—

BLE DAILY TRAINS

AND THROUGH

NG CAR SERVICE COMPLETE

BETWEEN THE

TH AND NORTHILES SHORTER

—AND—

OURS QUICKER

Than any other route

Washington and the East.

and Danville Railroad Time

Hour Fast Train Atlanta City Time

In effect, Oct. 12th,

1884.

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

City Time

THROUGH THE CITY.EVENTS OF INTEREST GATHERED
UP ABOUT TOWN.appearings here and there in the courts, at the Capitol, around the State House and in the streets—Minor News Notes Caught upon the sidewalk—Gossip in the Outlets.

Good citizens are hard to get. King, at 49

Ries, Monday and Tuesday!!

Ries, the American Countess!

Ries in Arcadia, Tuesday night!

The Alton homestead, near Decatur, is to be sold by the administrator to-day.

To-day is the first Tuesday, and the sheriff will have a few pieces of property on sale.

Mr. Vol Dunning has a bottle of artesian water filtered, sealed and labeled. The water has a delightful taste.

Yesterday the divorce suit of James Johnson against the wife was dismissed on a technicality and was brought again.

The special session of the United States court has adjourned, and the monthlong will have a rest until the next court term.

Pure Jersey Milk and Butter Milk, 40 cents per gallon; butter 40 cents per pound.

Send your orders to "Hillside farm." Telephone 22. Five calls.

Mr. J. H. Eddleman has sold his stock of clothes to Mr. John Ryan, and retired from business. He will remain at his old stand, 13

Peachtree, and settle with his creditors as rapidly as they call on him.

The Gate City National bank has determined to fill every office in building if low rents will secure tenants. With passenger elevator and steam heat, they are the cheapest and most desirable offices in the city.

Yesterday in the city court, in the case of

Hiram W. Hooper against A. J. Van Winkle,

the court awarded a verdict of $300 to the plaintiff.

This was a case in which the defendant, a

Marietta street saloon keeper, assaulted and beat up Hooper, and Hooper sued for damages for the injury to his person.

Yesterday Rosa J. Monroe, colored, filed a suit against the firm of Kemp & Burfee. The firm sold Rosa's husband a mare and colt, but

Rosa signed the note, but declined to pay

it. She was sued, and the sheriff was about to sell her out, when she asked for an injunction.

A temporary injunction was granted restraining the sheriff from selling the property.

Yesterday's report showed that the Western and Atlantic brought down during the day

24 loaded freight cars to Atlanta, and forwarded seventy-nine loaded freight cars northward. The Western and Atlantic people have 316 cars reported in their Chattanooga yard to come south to-day, and they expect to bring down about twenty trains.

The marriage of Miss Van Hilliard to Mr.

Eugene Spaulding will be celebrated at the

First Methodist church on the evening of the 10th instant. Thirty ladies, under the direction of Mr. Samuel P. Shaw, organist of the First Baptist church, will render a brilliant chorus from Beethoven's "Symphony No. 9,"

and the orchestra will accompany.

Some of the parties to the wedding of Whitcomb, the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia road are dissatisfied with the recent comments of the Constitution on the close of the case. Mr. Whitcomb thinks that the road has been unfairly treated, and he has gone on with the case. He will have secured a larger award, while the East Tennessee people think they have made a good compromise, and in this latter view some of the jurymen agree.

Yesterday Attorney General Anderson

rendered an important opinion on elections for justice of the peace. He holds that when there is no objection filed on the day appointed by law, namely the first Saturday in January,

such failure to elect does not create a vacancy and make an election thereafter lawful, but that the election is void. He holds that the election is void, and that the election is void, and that the election is void, and that the election is void, and

void, and that the election is void, and

void, and that the election is void, and

void, and that the election is void, and

void, and that the election is void, and

SHE WAS HIS WIFE.

That is What is Said by a Gentleman Who Knows the Facts.

Yesterday's Constitution contained an account of a suit filed by Mary A. Matry and others, against Mr. Francis E. Booth. Yesterday a Constitution man inquired at the office of the ordinary if there was any light

there which would throw on the case.

Colonel Calhoun said:

"I have not the slightest doubt that the lady was married to George J. Booth, and that she was his wife. I am not sure, but I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

I think she was his wife. I am not sure, but

MAYOR HILLYER'S VOTE

DECIDES THE CONTEST BETWEEN

THE ALDERMEN AND COUNCIL.

The appointments must be settled by a Conference Committee—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

be the Council's—Hillier's vote to be the

Council's—Hillier's vote to be the Council's—

Hillier's vote to be the Council's—Hillier's

vote to be the Council's—Hillier's vote to

H. KIMBALL, L. R. WHEELER & CO.
ARCHITECTS.
Constitution Building.

Firing and Gilding China for Amateurs
At Lyett's Art School, 67½ Whitehall street,
LESSONS IN ALL BRANCHES. ARTISTS' MATERIALS, etc. Write for Circulars.

IMPROVED COTTON SEED.

WE HAVE FOR SALE A LIMITED QUANTITY of the seed of the celebrated

"Bobb and Willimantic" Cottons,

varieties of upland long staple extensively grown in the Mississippi valley, and which are being outrivalled in the South Georgia with wonderful results. Certificates of the productiveness of these cottons as well as their greatly superior market value, which is

One to Three Cents Per Pound

above the ordinary staple, will be furnished on application by either Major S. McGehee, or the underigned. HITT & CO., Americus, Ga.
603-sun wed

CROCKERY, CHINA,
Lamps and Housefurnishings,
FINE GOODS. LOW PRICES.

SETH THOMAS CLOCKS,
Gate City Stone Filters.

McBRIDE'S,
32 Wall street,

OPPOSITE CAR SEED.

COTTON AND WEATHER

Daily Weather Report.

UNION'S OFFICE, 100 N. W. COR. U. S. A.,
U. S. CUSTOM HOUSE, February 2, 10:00 P.M.
All observations taken at the same moment of time at each place named.

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

Time of Observation.

Barometer.

Thermometer.

Direction.

Force.

Relative.

Weather.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

Remarks.

C. W. MOTES,
Premium Photographer
34 Whitehall street.

* Highest award at the last Fair—The only Medal awarded to Photography.

$100 PRIZE

At the last Photographers' Convention at Cincinnati, 1884.

Sittings made in cloudy as well as fair weather,
NEW SCENERY.

DAVID H. DOUGHERTY,
SPOT CASH.

Below we name a few of our many bargains.
And we are neither afraid nor ashamed of the prices, for when we mention prices

We mean to Show
The Goods

When Called Upon
To Do So!

An all wool colored cashmere at 35c.

" " " " " 40c. worth 50c

" " " " " 50c. worth 60c

" " " " " 60c. worth 80c

" " " " " 65c. worth 90c

A Black Silk at $1.00, worth $1.25

A Black at Silk $1.50, worth $2.

A Black Silk at $2.50 as good as any in town for $3.50.

A Bleached Table Damask for 50c. worth 65.

A Turkey Red " " 50c. worth 65.

And grand drives in better goods.

Huck and Damask Towels 10c. cheap at 15c.

" " " " 12 1/2c. good value

at 18c.

GOOD PRINTS

AT 3 1/2 cts.

WORTH 5 cts

A full size Bed Comfort for 75 cents, worth $1.00.

A full size Bed Comfort for $1.00,

former price $1.50.

A 10-4 White Blanket at 90 cents,

well worth $1.20.

Grand drives in white Blankets at $1.75,

$2.50 and $3.00. Former prices $2.50, $3.00 and $4.00.

Good 4-4 Sea Island 5c, Extra Good 4-4 Sea

Island 6c, worth 5c.

Centen Flannels at 5c, worth 6c.

Also big values in Bleached Goods.

Jenns for suits 25, 40, and 50c, worth 40, 50

and 60c.

Big lot of Ladies' solid colored hose 25c, worth 40c.

Also big bargains in Ladies' gloves to choose out.

Big drives in Cassimers for men and boys wear.

You can buy knit underwear for ladies, gentlemen and children at 50c, former price 75c. Other grades in proportion.

In conclusion, allow us to wish you prosperity, and ease of mind

for 1885; but in order to be prosperous you must pay spot cash when you buy, but buy where you please,

and for ease of mind owe no bills

when a panic strikes you, and allow collectors to dun some one else.

DAVID H. DOUGHERTY.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

JNO. PFEFFER & CO.

LISTEN! NOW IS
Commencing on Monday,
OUR SEMI-ANNUA
MENS', BOYS' AND CH

---A

PRICES THAT DE

HIRSCH

CLOTHIERS

42 and 44 WHITE

IN ORDER

Further Redu

OF HEAVY GOO

Overcoats, Winter

At very low figures.

DRESS SUITS, DIAGON

IS ALWA

Suits Made to Order at Popular Prices.

Successor to Muse & Swift

PAUL

WHOLESALE LI

22 ALABAM

Carries

Old Baker and

WHIS

Imported Brandy, Gins, Sher

Sec, VeCicquot, Monopo

Champ

French

APOLLINARIS WA

AN

FINE TABL

BASS BURKE'S ALE

Gate City

ATLANTA,

No. 5 NORTH FO

Manufacturers of Wire and

WIRE WORK OF EV

Were Chairs, S

AN

Hanging Baskets, Fire Sc

WINDOW

OFFICE RAILING A

J. L. SO

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

HIMKEN SPRING VEHICLES)

YOUR CHANCE!
December 22d, We Begin
L CLEARING SALE
ILDREN'S CLOTHING!

T---

IFY COMPETITION.

BROS.

& TAILORS.

38 WHITEHALL STREET.

TO STILL

ce My Stock

DS, I WILL SELL

Underwear, Etc.

My stock of fine

ALS, CORKSCREWS, Etc

YS FULL.

GEORGE MUSE,

38 Whitehall.

JONES,

QUOR DEALER,

A STREET,

In Stock

Monongahela

KIES,

ry and Port Wines, Pommery

le, G. H. Mumms & Co.

agnes,

Liqueurs.

TER,

GOSTURA BITTERS,

E CLARETS

GUINNESS STOUT.

LAMAR, RANKIN & LAMAR,

MACON, GEORGIA.

travels that way now

Having sold your stock

at the last sale, we are glad to report that we are now receiving a shipment of

J. C. Williams & Co.,

Syracuse, N. Y.

Sold by Druggists.